April 24, 2007

Joplin, MO – Tyler Fraum a 2004 Thomas Jefferson Independent Day School graduate was elected to be a member of Phi Beta Kappa in his Junior Year at the University of Chicago. Fraum's nomination to Phi Beta Kappa in his Junior Year is a particularly significant achievement, since only a very small proportion of the class is invited to join Phi Beta Kappa at this time. Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest undergraduate honors organization in the United States. The society has pursued its mission of fostering excellence in the liberal arts and sciences since 1776
