

TJ students, faculty, technology featured on KOAM 7

The evening newscasts on KOAM featured our leading-edge technology programs on August 30, 2007. The story featured students using the Tablet PCs and wireless projectors in a math class, and also featured interviews with students and faculty members.

Click one of the links below to watch the video:

High Speed Internet Connection

Low Speed Internet Connection

